THE DAILY [illegible]

VOL. VI. RALEIGH, TUESDAY, SEPT. [illegible]

THE NEWS.

—For latest news see Fourth Page.

—An election for congressmen will take place in Arkansas on the 30th of October.

—Paris correspondent of the Herald says there are now fifty thousand Americans on the continent of Europe.

—Kentucky has been Democratic by 4,422 in the Congressional vote. The Senate will stand 19 Union and 19 Opposition, and the House of representatives 58 Opposition and 42 Union.

—Later advices from Mexico show that the recent reports of the hopelessness of the liberal cause were very greatly exaggerated.

—It is reported that Mr. Edwin Booth, the actor, is to be married the coming winter, to a young lady of wealth and fortune.

—Bishop Ames proposes through the columns of the Christian Advocate and Journal to submit the question of title to the church property taken possession of at the South by authority of the Methodist Church North, to the decision of chief Justice Chase, and abide the result, whatever it may be.

—The estimated cost of the monument to Mr. Lincoln, to be erected in Springfield, Ill., is two hundred thousand dollars, and the sum thus far contributed toward it is fifty thousand dollars.—Of this amount the city of Chicago has furnished a total of precisely two hundred and eighty nine dollars and fifty seven cents.

—The best fish story of the season is related by the New London Star, of a man who while bathing was seized by a huge shark and dragged twenty-five feet under the water. Thinking that depth sufficient, he plunged his thumb into the monster's eye, was quickly released and regained the surface and his boat. The shark so damaged him, however, that he cannot live.

—Gen. Butler was before the Surrogate, in New York, again a few days since, in relation to his deceased brother's will. The Surrogate decided that the General must include in the inventory of assets all the Louisiana property, but to this the General dissents, on the ground that such property is beyond the jurisdiction of the New York Surrogate. He will now appeal from the decision to the Supreme Court.

—Trade is reviving in Galveston, and affairs generally in Texas are improving, notwithstanding the occasional trifling exception of the "pleasant pop of the pistol in the hands of some 'gentlemanly' marauder," or the "cheerful shriek" of the victim of some of the bands of desperadoes that infest that country.

—The Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows met yesterday in National Convention, at Baltimore, and considerable interest attaches to the circumstance of its being the first body in which the States lately in rebellion will be represented in council with the North. Delegates have been elected and will be in attendance from South Carolina, Louisiana and other Southern States.

—The East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad is about to resume operations. The Bristol News of the 8th says, that the bridge over the Watauga, at Carter depot, will be completed in about ten days, when the trains from the West will run up as far as Union Depot. In the meantime, an engine brought from Lynchburg will run to the Holston river. Passengers, then, will only have that river to cross to get to the regular train.

—The Savannah Republican of the 7th contains an account of the murder of Captain Heisler, Thirty-third United States colored troops, at Augusta, on the night of the 6th, by three young men, members of three of the most respectable families of that place. It appears the captain was discovered in the company of a mulatto girl, who was the mistress of one of the young men, and they all attacked him with their revolvers, one of the shots penetrated his neck, and proving mortal. Not satisfied with this they fell on his prostrate body, inflicting several ghastly cuts with knives. The affair had caused such wide-spread excitement that there was danger of riot, and threats were made of burning the city. The murderers were arrested and quiet restored.

—The tusk of a fossil elephant was found in Vermont the other day. It is forty-four inches in length, eighteen inches in circumference at the largest end, and eleven inches at the smallest. It is in a fair state of preservation, although some parts of it crumpled after being exposed to the air. It belonged to a species of elephant long since extinct, supposed to be the Ephas Primogenisve (or mammoth) Blumenback, that inhabited the northern parts of North America, having wandered across the Siberian plains to the Artic Ocean, Behring Straits, and beyond to this country south to about the parallel of 40 deg. Their bones show them to have been about twice the weight and one-third taller than our modern species.

—A tournament having for its object the glorification of the guerrilla Mosby, came off at Leesburg on Friday. The notorious partisan chieftain, Col. White, acted as chief marshal on the occasion. Mosby was, however deterred from being present by the knowledge of the fact that if he made his appearance on the ground he would have been arrested, so he prudently kept away. A detachment of seventy mounted federal soldiers from Winchester, was present to keep order and before the commencement of the exercises their commander, Captain Allen, ordered all the knights, judges, and other officers of the occasion, to take the oath of allegiance, which they did, White included—with some show of reluctance. All of the soldiers belonged recently to the commands of Mosby and White.

LECTURE BY A COLORED LADY.—Miss Richmonda Richards, who has lately returned from a four years' sojourn in Richmond, where she organized one of the first schools in that city for the freedmen, and while also employed in the secret service of our Government, will give a description of her adventures at the Abyssinian Baptist Church, Waverly Place, near Sixth avenue, this evening.—N. Y. Tribune, Sept. 11.

Tribute of Respect.

UNIVERSITY OF N. C.,
PHILANTHROPIC HALL,
September 9th, 1865.

WHEREAS, It has seemed good to Almighty God, in His infinite Providence, to call away from earth our much beloved friend and fellow member of society, JAMES I. PHILLIPS, of Edgecombe county; therefore,

Resolved, That while we bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well, yet we cannot but feel, most sensibly, the blow which has deprived us of our much esteemed associate, and our Society of one of her brightest gems, whose brilliancy bid fair to add new lustre to her fame.

Resolved, That we are truly proud of the record which this young soldier has left behind him—of his unswerving devotion to the cause in which he had embarked, and of the encomiums which his gallant deeds of heroism upon the field of battle so often elicited from his officers and comrades.

Resolved, That as a student, as well as a soldier, he was diligent and faithful in the discharge of his duties. That, as a companion, his uniform gentleness of deportment, and above all his christian principles and moral habits, gained for him our highest esteem and admiration.

Resolved, That we tender our warmest sympathies to his bereaved family and friends, and beg them to be comforted with us, remembering that it was God who gave and who has taken away.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased, also to the Raleigh Standard, Sentinel and Progress for publication.

THE CITY.

EPISCOPAL CONVENTION.—This body adjourned last Friday after a very interesting and harmonious session. Among other important matters transacted was submitted by Rev. C. M. Butler, which contained that portion of the Bishop's address concerning the freedmen, their condition and religious culture. The preamble recites that "By the changes which have hitherto existing between the white and black races, a new and to some extent unforseen condition of things obtains; and as this condition is evidently necessarily tends to create an alienation of the former at least to indifference on the part of the former owners of slaves, and diminish their influence on the part of the freedmen towards their former masters; and as the religious condition of the freedmen has been thereby already greatly hindered and in some cases almost defeated; and as the present civil status of the freedmen, notwithstanding these things, for many reasons, seems clearly providential, and should be accepted by us as such; therefore

Resolved, That the church in this Diocese address herself with all the energy and wisdom at her command, to reduce this confusion to order and to elevate the colored race as far as it may come within her sphere of action. In order to accomplish this end, be it further

Resolved, 1st. That this Council commend the people of color to the continued and unabated forbearance, kindness and good will of the white population of this Diocese.

Six other resolutions follow, with respect to the establishment for their benefit of independent churches and sabbath schools; that the clergy seek for colored catechist and sunday school teachers; that colored young men be educated for the ministry of the church to their own people in the State; that whenever practicable each parish should make provision for the training of the colored children to such degree as the condition of affairs may justify.

The report elicited some discussion, and was finally postponed under the subjoined resolution:

"Resolved, That in consideration of the interest and importance of the subject presented in this report, the Council postpone action upon it until its next meeting, commending, in the meantime, the temporal and religious interests of our colored population to the benevolence and wisdom of the Diocese."

The next meeting of the Convention will be held at Newbern on the last Wednesday in May, 1866.

A resolution of Rev A. A. Watson declaring the changes made in the Constitution of the Diocese at the Council held in Fayetteville in 1865, unconstitutional and hereby repealed, was withdrawn without action.

The committee on the state of the church, among other things report that from the limited number of Parochial Reports that have been placed in their hands they are enabled to make but an imperfect exhibit of the condition of the Diocese. There are twenty-five parishes from which no report has been received, and among these are several of the largest and most important in the Diocese. From the Parochial Reports that have been submitted to them, and from the Bishop's address, it appears that there have been 665 baptisms of which 551 were children, and 114 adults: 275 persons have been confirmed of whom 225 were whites, and 50 colored. Marriages 59, white, and 278 colored: Funerals 223. Two Deacons and one Priest have been ordained and there are three candidates for Holy Orders. The contributions since the last meeting of the Council have been $19,710,60 of which $7,614,50 in Confederate money and $3,059,10 in Federal Currency.

GODEY FOR OCTOBER.—This charming monthly for next month has been received through the mail. The embellishments are splendid as well as numerous. The frontispiece, steel engraving, "From the Cartoons of Raffaelle," is in the first style of art, while the fashion plate consists of walking costumes; dinner and visiting dress; childrens' fashion, containing five figures; boy's dresses; fancy hat, THE NEW BONNET, and other things desirable for the ladies. Besides, there is a rare variety of good reading, prose and poetical, among the rest Marion Harlands' novelletta, "Fred Harleys' Passenger" and Metta V. Victor's story of "Boy Love."

The terms of Godey—exclusively on the cash system—are furnished below:

One copy, one year $3,00; Two copies, one year, $5,50; Three copies, one year, $7,50; Four copies, one year, $10,00; Five copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, making six copies, $14 00; Eight copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, making nine copies, $21,00; Eleven copies, one year, and an extra copy to the person sending the club, making twelve copies, $27,50;

Addition to any of the above clubs, $2,50 each subscriber.

Godey's Lady's Book and Arthur's Home Magazine will be sent, each one year, on receipt of $4,50.

HORACE GREELEY MAY BE HERE.—The committee about Raleigh will not decline, we expect, at the announcement that Horace Greely, of the New York Tribune, is not coming to this city. He says that he cannot accept the invitation of the Governor of North Carolina to attend the meeting there at Raleigh on the 27th instant, having made an old and important engagement to visit that day in Minnesota. He has closed the letter to the Governor advising them to be hopeful, patient, peaceful, diligent, pay enough attention to politics to vote when they have an opportunity, and attend to their own business.—Raleigh Standard, 16th inst.

DR. HELMBOLD'S
FLUID EXTRACT BUCHU,
Is the great Diuretic.

HELMBOLD'S MIGHTY CONCENTRATED
COMPOUND FLUID EXTRACT SARSAPARILLA,
For purifying the blood, removing all chronic constitutional diseases, arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Tetter Head, Salt Rheum, Pains and swellings of the Bones, Ulceration of the Throat and Legs, Blotches, Pimples on the Face, Tetter, Erysipelas, and all scaly eruptions of the skin,

AND BEAUTIFYING THE COMPLEXION.

Not a few of the worst disorders that afflict mankind arise from the corruption that accumulates in the blood. Of all the discoveries that have been made to purge it out, none can equal in effect HELMBOLD'S COMPOUND EXTRACT OF SARSAPARILLA. It cleanses and renovates the blood, invigorates the vigor of health into the system, and purges out the humors which make disease. It stimulates the healthy functions of the body, and expels the diseases that grow and ramble in the blood. Such a remedy that could be relied on has long been sought for, and now for the first time, the public have one on which they can depend. Our space here does not permit of our testimonials to show its effects, but the total of a single bottle will speak for itself, that it has virtues surpassing any thing they have ever taken.

The compounding of the Extract of Sarsaparilla added to a pint of water is equal to the Sarsaparilla Drink, and one bottle is fully equal to a gallon of the Syrup of Sarsaparilla, or the decoction as formerly made.

THESE REMEDIES HAVE BEEN ADMITTED TO USE IN THE UNITED STATES ARMY, and are also in very general use in all the STATE HOSPITALS and PUBLIC SANITARY INSTITUTIONS throughout the land, as well as in private practice, and are considered as invaluable remedies.

DAILY PROGRESS.

RALEIGH, N. C.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1865.

To the Mechanics and Laboring Men of Raleigh.

FELLOW WORKINGMEN:—Finding it impossible to address you before the day of election, as I leave town this morning and cannot return until late Wednesday evening, I address you this circular.

As a workingman and a mechanic I appeal to you for your suffrages on Thursday next. You now have a chance to elevate one of your own number, and if you fail to do it you cannot claim anything for yourselves or your children. If you spurn me you may expect to be spurned when your turn comes, for the pretentious aristocracy that has kept you and me down will not relax its hold as long as we submit to its control.

If elected to the Convention I shall favor such measures as will restore civil law, remove the troops and restore the State to the Union at the earliest possible moment.

I will oppose the assumption or payment of any bonds, Confederate, State or County, issued for the prosecution of the rebellion. These bonds are generally in the hands of wealthy speculators and I am opposed to taxing the poor to pay them.

I am in favor of the settlement of all individual accounts contracted during the war, upon a fair, just and equitable basis.

I am opposed to allowing the negro to vote or testify in the courts against white persons, and will oppose all such propositions before the Convention.

I shall support the administrations and policy of President Johnson and Governor Holden.

I shall urge the election of Governor Holden to the position he now fills when the time to elect shall arrive.

If upon these declarations of principles you deem me worthy, vote for me, and be assured that I will represent you honestly and faithfully. I trust that the mechanics and working men are hereafter to take a part in the control of public affairs, and there can never be a better time for them to urge their claims and put forward their men than now.

Your obedient servant,

J. L. PENNINGTON.

Sept. 18th, 1865.

P. S.—If the candidates can possibly get to town in time they will address their fellow-citizens on Wednesday evening. If they arrive in time notice will be given by ringing of the bell.

The Prospects of the South—Her Real Friends—Her Duty—Her Interests.

The Southern States could ask no more striking illustration of their present duty than is afforded by contrasting the course of different political organizations at the North. It will not now avail to rehearse the oft-repeated but now exploded idea that either partizan aspirations or commercial aggrandizement is the mainspring to the friendship evinced for us by the people of the old free States. Slavery, upon which the charge was heretofore made to rest, because that particular labor was exclusively employed in the production of cotton, no longer has existence, and therefore such pleas have not even a shadow of support. It is imperative with us, then, promptly to ascertain who are real friends, upon the basis of an unbroken and indissoluble Union, as the only safeguard against anarchy and the destruction of democratic government. It is important from the fact that within twelve months the questions upon which our honor and safety depend will be adjusted beyond the hope of future remedy.

We are bold to assert that ANDREW JOHNSON, and the men who think and act with the President, comprise the reliant element for the reorganizing South. The most positive evidence on this point—even beyond their own distinct utterances—is the emphatic declarations of that trumpeter of radicalism, Hon. THADDEUS STEVENS, of Pennsylvania. He lately "boldly avowed his belief that the very existence of the Republican (i. e. Radical) party depended upon the rebel States being kept out of the Union for a while; their admission would render the speedy triumph of the Democracy inevitable."

There is no method, unless through the medium of affected blindness, by which we can escape familiarity with the actual character of this position. Mr. Stevens is, the authoritative and open opponent of Jacobinism—of that party at the North which always labored in and for its political capacities for a stern and pitiless policy towards our section. He enforces in few words their desire, aim and purpose to be, ruin—political, social and commercial—and if we escape at all it will only be through a present and future course of the most unquestionable manifestations of loyalty to the Union. With such record, expressed in the tone of the newspaper press, in our primary meetings, and especially and particularly in our State elections, we shall find no difficulty in perpetuating a party strong enough to keep from place and power every shade of "Japanese" illiberalists.

This is manifest when we reflect that the largest, most influential and respectable membership of the old Black Republican organization will be with and for us. Mr. Seward, it is even thought, coincides fully in the avowed policy of President Johnson and his supporters, and with [illegible] weight [illegible] former [illegible] abuse [illegible] most friendly tone. The New York Evening Post, for a long period of years before secession esteemed the most virulent of the South's foes, in referring to the complaints of the press here as to the present hostile views of the North towards our section and people, thus rejoins:

"The complaints have no proper grounds. There may be, here and there, a foolish speech or paragraph in the North, but elsewhere such feelings here as are attributed to the Northern people; and it is a pity that anything of the kind should be suspected. There is not a man, probably, in the North that will not rejoice to see peace, law, justice, prosperity and happiness firmly established throughout the States lately torn by war; if no other motive caused this, that of self-interest would alone suffice. It is for our benefit that the Southern States should do well; that Southern men should be prosperous; that their natural wealth should be developed; that they should be able to govern themselves, so that our armies may be withdrawn and disbanded.

"Of course we are waiting anxiously to see how far and how quickly these hopes and expectations will be fulfilled."

With such declarations to inspire us, shall we be fool-hardy enough to throw away the present splendid chance of unmistakeably indicating our full recognition of the government at Washington. We must not merely repudiate the measures and theories of the past, but, in the [illegible] as testimony of unsinking loyalty, make the surrender of the men of former times. NOTHING LESS WILL SAVE THE PEOPLE OF THE SOUTH FROM HUMILIATION, REJECTION, DEFEAT AND RUIN.

CONFIDENCE—GEN. MEADE.—General Meade who has been making an extensive tour through the South, in the district under his command, has, it is said, made a satisfactory report to the Government of the reviving sense of political and social duty throughout the Southern section of his department. The gratifying announcement we observe in the New York Times, which adds that the report of General Meade is to be the basis for a reduction of the National army at several points in Virginia and North Carolina. The Times continues:

"For the time, it is of great consequence to the whites not less than the black population of the South, that there should be military jurisdiction over disputed cases between the emancipated slaves and their late masters. But the authority of these special courts, if General Meade correctly estimates the sentiment of the resident population will not require the support of any large force.—And there seems to be on all hands an accumulation of evidence showing the existence of a disposition on the part of employers and employed to make the best of their new relationship. Herein, therefore, lies the main argument and justification for the executive method of reconstruction. The return of the late insurgents to duty has to be met as the president proposes to meet it, by extending confidence to them. How much is implied in the word confidence the honest citizen of the South now begin to discover, as they set about finding their way back into the Union."

More Negroes than Whites in Parts of Alabama.

According to a letter to the Cincinnati Commercial from Huntsville, Alabama, the negro population is now greater than the white in some parts of that State. The following are the figures:

"In 1860 the aggregate population of this county (Madison) and the adjacent one (Limestone) was 41,756. There were in

MADISON COUNTY.
Colored people	14,765.
White people	11,685.
Excess of colored,	3,080.
LIMESTONE COUNTY.
Colored people,	8,091.
White people,	7,215.
Excess of colored,	856.
Total excess of colored	3,936.

"Therefore, of an aggregate of 41,756, there were, colored 22,856, to 18,900 whites. This aggregate of the colored element has, I doubt not, by immigration, greatly increased, while the white population has, doubtless, very much decreased. Not less than 10,000 colored persons are within a radius of ten miles, with Huntsville as a local centre."

TRADE WITH NORTH CAROLINA.—The Albemarle and Chesapeake Canal has opened to our merchants a large part of the most fertile portion of North Carolina, and a line of steamers, composed of the Wawenock, Gazelle and Clinton, are now leaving our city every other day, with mail and passengers for Coynyork, where they connect with [illegible] steamers for Newbern, Edenton and Plymouth. In addition to this line, there is a line of barges, carrying freight, and four steam tugs, plying daily [illegible] tow boats through the canal, by which [illegible] canal boats, lighters, &c., can be [illegible] to the Albemarle sound. These arrangements are [illegible] matters of vital importance to our [illegible] Norfolk, and we call attention to [illegible] are interested may avail themselves [illegible] facilities. Take one fact [illegible] that country, know that Hyde county alone is equal [illegible] merchants should locate themselves [illegible] Newbern may outstrip them.—Norfolk Day Book.

Mr. H. B. Godwin, wife and daughter arrived at Petersburg from Weldon on the night of Thursday last and stopped at the Bolingbroke. After [illegible] a room, Mr. G. walked out and returned [illegible] and went to bed. About 12 o'clock, [illegible] heard, but no attention was paid to it. [illegible] half-past 12 passed and found the body of Mr. G. lying on the pavement and his person [illegible] body mangled. The wife and daughter were [illegible] and knew nothing of it. The causes of his death not known. Mr. G. was [illegible] of Portsmouth, Va., but had for several years resided in Charlotte, in this State. He was a most worthy gentleman in all his aspects, as citizen, husband, father and friend.

ARRIVAL OF EMIGRANTS.—And yet another lot of emigrants have reported to Dr. Bell, who is exerting himself to supply the surrounding country with a superior class of labor. These emigrants are generally hearty, strong and intelligent looking men, who have been used to farming, and are well acquainted with all the duties appertaining to farming [illegible]. There is no estimating the amount of good to arise from the labors of the enterprising doctor. Let all who want good and superior "help" call on him, and they will be supplied.—Norfolk Day Book.

[illegible] Sept. 18, 1865.

Yours of the 16th inst. at hand. You say I am reported as having said publicly on the streets in Raleigh, that E. P. Moore, Esq., of your city, had said in my presence that he was in favor of negro evidence in the Courts. Mr. Moore did say in my presence that he was in favor of negro evidence. Not only in my presence, but in the presence of John Pool, of Bertie; Mr. Brooks, of one of the lower counties; and ——, Thompson, of Bertie.

I was not present when Mr. Moore was in conversation with the above gentlemen, but they told me of it next morning at the Yarborough House.

Mr. Moore went further than merely stating he was for negro evidence. He argued with me an hour about it, and finally, I not yielding to his arguments, asked me to postpone making up my mind upon the subject, as he looked upon it as a matter of great importance and above should make up their minds too soon until the subject was thoroughly investigated in all its bearings.

I have always been and am now a devoted friend of Mr. Moore's, and up to this time a political friend; but, I could not and would not vote for any man who, at this time is in favor of negro evidence.

You can use this as you please.

Very respectfully,

W. A. SMITH.

THE MAIDEN'S PRAYER.

BY J. G. WHITTIER.

She rose from her delicious sleep
And dust away her sept brown hair,
And in a tone as low and deep
As love's first whisper, breathed a prayer.
Her snow-white hands together pressed,
Her bluish eyes sheltered in the lid,
The folded linen on her breast,
Just swelling with the charms it hid;
And from her long and flowing dress
Escaped a bare and snowy foot,
Whose step, upon the earth old press
Like a new-sn w-flake, white and mute;
And then from slumbers soft and warm,
Like a young spirit fresh from heaven,
She bowed that light and matchless form
And humbly prayed to be forgiven.

Oh, God! if souls unsullied as these Need daily mercy from Thy Throne;
If she, upon her bended knees,
Our holiest and purest one—
She with a face so clear and bright,
We deem her some stray child of light
If she with those soft eyes and tears,
Day after day in her young years,
Must kneel and pray for grace from Thee,
What far, far deeper need have we!
How hardly, if she reach not heaven,
Will our wild errors be forgiven!

DAILY PROGRESS.

TUESDAY, SEPT. 19, 1865

President Johnson's Visit to Raleigh.

We have been kindly furnished by His Honor, the Mayor, with the following correspondence between himself and the President:

MAYOR'S OFFICE,
RALEIGH, N. C., Aug. 28th, 1865.

To his Excellency, Andrew Johnson:

SIR:—At a meeting of the Board of Commissioners of this city, held to-day, the following preamble and resolution were unanimously adopted:

"WHEREAS, We have heard that Andrew Johnson, President of the United States, intends shortly to visit Richmond, Va;

"Resolved, That we tender him, in behalf of our fellow-citizens, a cordial invitation to extend his visit to this city."

It affords me great pleasure, Sir, to communicate to you the foregoing resolution, and to unite with the people generally of this place, in the wish that you will accept this invitation. To see you here in this, your native city, the spot where you were born, and the home of your childhood, would, I assure you, be a great gratification to us all, and would, I trust, be not without satisfaction to you.

I am, Sir, Very Respectfully,
Your Obedient Servant,
WM H. HARRISON.

EXECUTIVE MANSION,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 8th, 1865.

Hon. W. H. Harrison,
Mayor of the City of Raleigh, N. C.

SIR:—I am in receipt of your letter of the 25th instant, inviting me to extend my visit to Raleigh, should I make one to Richmond, Va.

It would give me very great pleasure to do so, but at present I cannot give you a definite answer.—Begging you and the Board of Commissioners of the City to accept my thanks for the invitation, I remain very truly yours,

ANDREW JOHNSON.
President U. S.

NORTHERN MARKETS.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16, p. m.—The Cotton market is dull to-day. Middlings are quoted at 45, outside price. Yesterday, sales were made at 46½.

Gold has suffered a slight decline, and is quoted at 48.

United States 5-20's 107¼ to 107⅝ North Carolina Sixes advanced to 77½.

Money is off in abundance at 5 per cent. on call. Stock houses supply themselves with great facility, and the offerings to them are largely in excess of their wants. In commercial paper there is no change.

Baltimore, Sept. 16, p. m.—The whisky market is strongers with large sales of Ohio at $2.28 to $2,28½ per gallon.

Bacon is becoming scarce, and prices further improved to-day at 18½ for shoulders, and 19½ for sides. Bulk meats are also scarce, and held firm at higher prices. Lard—small sales of Western at 26 cents in barrels. Baltimore City 24 to 24½, and refined 28 cents per lb.

Resumption of Specie Payments.

From an able and lengthy article in the New York Commercial on the above subject, we extract the following:

There exist at the present moment a greater number of circumstances favorable to a resumption of specie payments, than are likely to be united together again for a long time to come. Money is easy and trade prosperous. Commerce has been carried on for some time past mostly for cash, and consequently the mercantile and industrial communities have few or no engagements to be injuriously effected by resumption. Stocks of goods of every description are light, not only in first hands, but also in the hands of the jobbers and retailers, so that the fall of gold to par at the present moment will less injure them than in ordinary times. The crops of the present year will soon come to market and furnish ample means to liquidate our importations and our other indebtedness to Europe, thus preventing, for some time to come, any demand for coin for export, which is the only demand that we can have so long as the community have confidence in our currency. As soon as there are undoubted indications of an approaching resumption of specie payments, gold will decline, and large amounts of capital which have been transferred to Europe since the enactment of the Legal Tender act, will return here and thus insure a favorable state of the foreign exchanges, even before large shipments of our products are made. And so every one fears that resumption will be accompanied by a tight money market and falling prices, the orders for foreign commodities and products would at once be greatly reduced, were resumption expected to take place shortly. Thus, all things combine to make next January a most favorable moment for the resumption of specie payments.

A LITTLE MISTAKE.—The Southern women who have petitioned Mr. Johnson to pardon Jefferson Davis, speak of Mr. Davis as "called from the retirement of his home to a position which he did not solicit, but which his manhood forbade him to decline."

This is not quite accurate. They should have spoken of him as "leaving his place in the United States Senate in violation of his solemn oath of fidelity to the United States, to assume the position of chief of a traitorous conspiracy against that Union which had educated him in a national school, and had received his oath of fidelity and allegiance, not merely as a Senator, but as a student and a soldier."—N. Y. Post.

TREASURE RECOVERED FROM THE SOUTH.—Captain J. B. Jones, of the Nineteenth United States infantry, arrived at Washington on Monday from Augusta Georgia, by the way of New York, bringing with him eleven hundred pounds of gold and silver bullion, with a small amount of coin, of the aggregate value of perhaps $200,000. This wealth was recovered by the Treasury agent, and it is said to be a part of the spoils captured from Jefferson Davis. Captain Jones has delivered the money to the Treasury of the United States.

THE MISSING RECORDS.—Dorance Atwater, charged with the larceny of the Andersonville prison records, which were purchased from him by the War Department for the sum of $800, has been tried by a court martial, which held its sessions at the headquarters of the Department of Washington. The sentence has been submitted to the War Department, and is now awaiting the approval of the proper authorities.

Boston Corbet, who shot Booth, and against whose knees Southern bull-dogs rubbed noses in a most friendly way, has left the army, and lives in New York. His trade is that of a hat finisher, and we understand he has resumed it.

Ex-Governor Wm. Smith, of Virginia, has been permitted to visit Washington, and is expected in that city in a few days. His parole confined him to the county of Fauquier, Va.

PARDONED.—Col. James L. Orr, of South Carolina, formerly speaker of the House of Representatives, was on Friday last, pardoned by the President.

A Proclamation,

BY WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

TO THE PEOPLE OF NORTH CAROLINA.

In pursuance of power vested in me by ANDREW JOHNSON, President of the United States, by the proclamation of May 29th, 1865, appointing a Provisional Governor of North Carolina, under the lawful control of the Constitution of the United States, which guarantees to every State in the Union a republican form of government; and in order to enable the loyal people of said State to organize a State Government, whereby justice may be established, domestic tranquility restored, and loyal citizens protected in all their rights of life, liberty, and property; and in order, also, that said State may be restored to its Constitutional relations to the Federal government, by presenting such a republican form of government as will entitle the State to the guarantee of the United States therefor, and its people to protection by the United States against invasion, insurrection and domestic violence, I, WILLIAM W. HOLDEN, Provisional Governor as aforesaid, do hereby proclaim that an election will be held in said State, on Thursday, the 21st day of September, 1865, for a Convention, to be composed of one hundred and twenty delegates, to be chosen as follows:

The Clerks and Sheriffs of the respective counties will proceed at once to assemble the Justices of the Peace, a majority of whom will select from their number not less than six nor more than eighteen Justices, men of intelligence, discretion firmness, and approved loyalty, whose duty it shall be to administer to those who may be entitled to receive it, the oath contained in the President's Amnesty Proclamation of May 29th, 1865, under such instruction as may be prescribed in this Proclamation. The Justices shall, at the same time, appoint Inspectors of the elections at the various precincts in their respective counties, in accordance with the law in relation thereto, Charter 52, Revised Code of North Carolina. The elections for members of the Convention shall be conducted in the same manner as elections for members of the House of Commons, in accordance with the provisions of chapter 52, Revised Code, so far as said provisions may be applicable; and the officers appointed to hold said elections, and to make returns thereof, shall be liable to the same penalties for failure to act, or for neglect of duty, as are prescribed in chapter 52, Revised Code.

No person will be allowed to vote who is not a voter qualified as prescribed by the Constitution and laws of the State, in force immediately before the 20th day of May, 1861; except that the payment of a poll tax shall not be required.

All paroled soldiers of the army and navy of the pretended Confederate States, or of this State, and all paroled officers of the army and navy of the pretended Confederate States, or of this State, under and including the rank of Colonel, if of the army, and under and including the rank of Lieutenant, if of the navy, will be allowed to vote, provided they are not included in any of the fourteen excluded classes of the President's Amnesty Proclamation; and, provided further, that they are citizens of the State in accordance with the terms prescribed in the preceding paragraph.

No person will be allowed to vote who does not exhibit to the inspectors a copy of the Amnesty Oath, as contained in the President's Proclamation of May 29th, 1865, signed by himself and certified by at least two Justices of the Peace.

Printed Copies of the Amnesty Oath will be furnished to the Clerks, who will distribute them to the Justices appointed to administer the oath. The Justices will deliver the certified copy to the person taking the oath and retain the original to be transmitted to this office.

Justices of the Peace are authorized to administer the Amnesty Oath to persons who may desire to apply to the President for a pardon.

The Sheriffs of the respective counties shall furnish as soon as practicable, certificates of election to those persons who may have received the highest number of votes as members of the Convention; and the Sheriffs shall also immediately send to the office of the Secretary of State, Raleigh, a statement of the vote in their respective Counties for the members aforesaid, and also a statement of the said vote, sealed up, directed to the President of the Convention, Raleigh, to be laid before the Convention.

The members of the Convention thus chosen, will assemble in the city of Raleigh, on the third day of October, 1865.

The attention of Justices appointed to administer the Amnesty Oath, is especially directed to the following fourteen excluded classes of the President's Amnesty Proclamation of May 29th, 1865:

First—All who are, or shall have been, pretended civil or diplomatic officers, or otherwise, domestic or foreign agents of the pretended Confederate government.

Second—All who left judicial stations under the United States to aid the rebellion.

Third—All who shall have been military or naval officers of said pretended Confederate government, above the rank of Colonel in the army or Lieutenant in the navy.

Fourth—All who left seats in the Congress of the United States to aid the rebellion.

Fifth—All who resigned or tendered resignations of their commissions in the army or navy of the United States to evade duty in resisting the rebellion.

Sixth—All persons who have [illegible]

Seventh—All persons who have [illegible]

Eighth—All persons who have [illegible]

Ninth—All persons who have [illegible]

Tenth—All persons who, at the time they seek to obtain the benefits hereof by taking the oath hereby prescribed, are in military, naval or civil confinement, custody, or under bonds of the civil, military or naval authorities or agents of the United States, as prisoners of war, or persons detained for offenses of any kind either before or after conviction.

Eleventh—All persons who have voluntarily participated in said rebellion, and the estimated value of whose taxable property is over twenty thousand dollars.

Fourteenth—All persons who have taken the oath of amnesty as prescribed in the President's proclamation of December eighth, A. D., one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, or an oath of allegiance to the government of the United States since the date of said proclamation, and who have not thenceforward kept and maintained the same inviolate; Provided, That special application may be made to the President for pardon by any person belonging to the excepted classes, and such clemency will be liberally extended as may be consistent with the facts of the case and the peace and dignity of the United States.

Under the first exception are included all persons who have been civil or diplomatic officers or agents of the pretended Confederate government, either within or without the territorial limits of the United States.

Under the seventh exception are included all officers, agents, or private citizens who have been absent from the United States for the purpose of aiding the rebellion.

Under the thirteenth exception are included all who, during the rebellion, have held any office or agency under the State of pretended Confederate government; or have in any way voluntarily joined in the rebellion, as for example, by entering or marching with armed forces hostile to the United States; by sending or furnishing money, provisions, or arms to persons engaged in the rebellion, save in cases where money or provisions were furnished from the promptings of charity or humanity; by acting with assemblages of persons, whether organized or unorganized, hostile to the United States; or in any other way giving voluntary aid, assistance or encouragement to the rebellion; and whose taxable property on the 29th day of May, 1865, exceeded in value the sum of twenty thousand dollars.

The other exceptions are so plain as not to require explanation.

No certificate will be granted by the Justices to any person who is included within any of the fourteen excluded classes, unless on exhibition by the party of his pardon for his offence from the President.

The Justices appointed to administer the amnesty oath, and to furnish certificates of the same which shall be evidence of loyalty, are especially instructed to be vigilant and faithful. While it will not be their duty to attempt to pry into the hearts and consciences of men, they will nevertheless admonish those who may apply to take the oath, that it must be taken and subscribed in good faith, with an honest intention on their part to keep it without secret purpose or mental reservation upon any occasion or at any time to commit any act in violation of said oath; and they will warn them that if the oath is not thus taken and kept, the pardon offered them by the President will be void, and they will remain subject to trial under the law for perjury and treason.

The Justices, Clerks and Sheriffs, whose duty it is to provide for administering the oath and to conduct the elections, are enjoined to use every practicable means to enable every citizen to take the oath who may desire and be entitled to do so. And the Inspectors are enjoined to inspect and examine fairly and truly, to decide in every case in accordance with the law, and with the instructions they have received from this office, and to make prompt and correct returns of the number of votes and for whom cast, at their respective precincts.

Done at our city of Raleigh, the 8th day of August, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and in the year of the independence of the United States the ninetieth.

WILLIAM W. HOLDEN,
Provisional Governor.

By the Governor:
LEWIS HARRIS, Private Secretary.
